It's less than 90 minutes from London, giving access to millions of potential guests looking for a convenient coastal getaway. Deal Station is only a few minutes' walk, and the town car park is located behind the premises. Perfect for both shoppers and guests.

STEP INSIDE -

The whole property is dripping in period charm, with exposed ceiling beams throughout and gorgeous casement windows in the two ground floor bay windows. It really is unique!

The first floor includes a spacious lounge & dining room with a fireplace and raised bay window to the front, giving wonderful sea views.

The kitchen at the rear is homely and welcoming, combining the best of old and new. There's plenty of space for a dining table or perhaps a kitchen island.

There's also a shower room on this level.

The top floor has two double bedrooms, the front bedroom giving wonderful sea views. And there's a handy separate WC.

OUT AND ABOUT -

This imposing three storey end terrace sits at the gateway from the seafront to the narrow streets that make up Deal's Middle Street Conservation Area.

The traditional character and feel of the 'smugglers lanes' have been preserved, surely one reason why this is such a well-loved & popular part of this historic maritime town.

There's an awful lot of history contained in these higgledy-piggledy streets, plus many fantastic seafood restaurants, independent shops, pubs & cafes. Not to mention a selection of galleries and antique shops which cater for a discerning clientele.

Do you dream of adding to the fabulous range of attractions or creating a superb place to live and enjoy the best that Deal has to offer? Or both?

The promenade is great for a brisk morning walk with the sunrise or an evening stroll - it extends around a mile to the north towards the golf club or south down to Walmer.

If you prefer country walks and historic sites to strolls along the prom, there's plenty of choice nearby, including Walmer Castle and the nearby Deal battlements.

For those who favour walks over immaculately mowed fairways and manicured greens, there's the Royal Cinque Ports and Walmer & Kingsdown golf clubs.

Royal St George's, Sandwich (which has hosted 15 Open Championships, dating back to 1894) is less than a 20-minute drive away.

This coastal location means you or your short-stay guests may want to use it as a base for foreign day trips. Both the port at Dover and the Eurotunnel terminal at Folkestone are only a short drive away.
